CUSTOMS DECISIONS.

COTTON GOODS. William Anderson & Co. imported before the end of the United States General Appraisers a number of cotton goods in a number of cases. The goods were classified as follows: 1. Cotton goods, 2. Linen goods, 3. Silk goods, 4. Wool goods, 5. Rayon goods, 6. Synthetic goods, 7. Other goods.

The General Appraisers sustained the contention of the importers for classification of the goods under paragraph 20 as "cotton goods."

TABLE COVERS.—The tariff tax on turkish and similar table covers imported by Marshall & Sons was assessed by the Board of United States General Appraisers. These covers were of cotton, rayon, silk, and synthetic fabrics, and had figured upholstery goods and duty assessed at the rate of 10 per cent ad valorem under paragraph 20 of the tariff act of 1913. The General Appraisers sustain the contention of the importers for classification of the merchandise under paragraph 20 as "cotton goods" with duty at the rate of but 2 per cent ad valorem under paragraph 20.

SAFETY-JUDGE BROWN.—Judge Brown of the Board of United States General Appraisers has rendered his decision last yesterday on the following appraisement of the foreign market value of some sardines imported from the Panton of London. Sardines in olive oil, Marie Elizabeth brand, imported at an average price of 10 cents per case of 100 cans. The packings included less sea freight, marine insurance, and port charges. These sardines were exported on December 1, 1915, and entered at this port on January 1, 1916.

PEPPERS.—No advance is made on the foreign market value of peppers imported here from Parrot & Bagnoli of Genoa, Italy, and the same was assessed by the Board of United States General Appraisers at the rate of 10 per cent ad valorem under paragraph 20 of the tariff act of 1913. The General Appraisers sustain the contention of the importers that the entered value was incorrect and advances were levied. The issue was heard before General Appraiser Brown. In the ruling just handed down yesterday, the following appraisement of the foreign market value of some red peppers imported from the Panton of London. Sardines in olive oil, Marie Elizabeth brand, imported at an average price of 10 cents per case of 100 cans. The packings included less sea freight, marine insurance, and port charges. These sardines were exported on December 1, 1915, and entered at this port on January 1, 1916.
